

QUARTER MIDGET RACING

Quarter Midget Racing is a family oriented Motor Sport-Race program for children ages 5 to 16 years old. It is a sport that the entire family gets involved. The cars are 1/4-scaled Midget race cars. Tracks are 1/20 of a mile in length. The Race season runs from March through November. Many successful drivers received their start in Quarter Midget series such as: Bobby & Terry Labonte, Tony Stewart, Mark Martin, Jeff Gordon, and more. Quarter Midget racing is very popular throughout North America with over 50 Quarter Midget club organizations and over 4,000 drivers. Admission is always free at all Quarter Midget tracks across the country.

Rylee Loveday currently races at the Huntsville Quarter Midget Association, in Huntsville Alabama. The Raceway is located at 4275 East Schrimsher Rd. Rylee started racing in August 2007. She plays softball for East Madison County Recreation Association. She was awarded to the

A B honor roll, a physical fitness award and made All-Stars in softball for 2008. She is a very outgoing and competitive young lady. She has a long season in front of her and we can not wait to see how she does. ■
